THE LAST WITNESS
A High-Octane International Miniseries by Marouf Soufiane

GENRE: International Legal Thriller / Noir
FORMAT: 5 x 60 min (Complete Mini-Series)
MARKET VALUE: High-Concept / Global Binge-Watch Appeal

THE UNIQUE SELLING PROPOSITION
The "Ticking Clock" Narrative: The story begins with a literal 72-hour deadline. This creates an immediate, relentless pace that keeps viewers hooked from the first minute of Episode 1.

A Journey Across Europe: Unlike localized dramas, this series is a visual tour of Europe—Strasbourg, Budapest, Vienna, Prague, and the Croatian coast. This multi-location setup guarantees a high production value and massive international appeal.

Moral Complexity: This isn't just a "police vs. criminal" story. It’s a deep dive into the guilt of a judge and the corruption of high-level institutions (The European Commission), making it timely and intellectually stimulating.

THE LOGLINE
A prominent European Judge risks her career and life to save an innocent man she wrongly convicted, embarking on a cross-border race against time to expose a conspiracy at the heart of the system.

THE STORY ARC (A Complete Journey)
What starts as a 3:00 AM phone call leads to a desperate rescue mission. Judge Elena Vasquez must break the very laws she spent a lifetime defending. From the gray, clinical courtrooms of Strasbourg to a life-or-death confrontation on a private yacht in Croatia, the series delivers a complete, satisfying, and explosive narrative arc over 5 episodes.

KEY ASSETS
Fully Completed Scripts: All 5 episodes are written and polished. This project is "Plug-and-Play"—ready for immediate development/pre-production.

Emotional Anchor: The heart of the show is the redemption of Elena and the reunion of Adam Kovacs with his daughter. It balances intense action with profound human emotion.

The Antagonist: Konstantin Havel is not a cliché villain; he is a sophisticated "Institutional Evil," providing a formidable and realistic challenge for our protagonist.

PRODUCTION POTENTIAL
Perfectly suited for premium global platforms such as Netflix, HBO, or Canal+. The limited 5-episode format is the most sought-after duration in the current streaming market for maximum engagement.
